

Contact
Bill Potter
Delaware Workforce Investment Board
302-761-8163
William.Potter@state.de.us
Fax: 302-762-2138

Wilmington Del.: Feb. 11, 2007 — The Delaware Workforce Investment Board (DWIB) recently announced the addition of four new board members at its quarterly board meeting held Feb. 27, 2007 in Wilmington.

The additions of John Castle of Wilmington Trust; Harry Gravelle of the Delaware Building Trades; John “Jay” Reed of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Delaware; and Delaware Representative James Johnson, D-New Castle, were announced last week.

In other business, long time board member Julian “Pete” Booker, president Delmarva Broadcasting Company, stepped down from the board earlier in February after more than a decade of service.

For more information call Bill Potter at the Delaware Workforce Investment Board at 302-761-8163.

###

The Delaware Workforce Investment Board is a private/public partnership committed to improving the employability of individuals, by helping them overcome barriers and increase their skill set to meet the current and future needs of Delaware employers.